

Stephen Nash is in the early throws of putting together a volume in the history of archaeochronology. At this time, it is planned that the volume will contain the following contributions:

Introduction - "The Surprisingly Deficient History of Archaeochronology -
Stephen Nash and Jeffrey Dean

"Concordance and Discord Between Navajo History and Tree-Ring Data -
Ron Towner

"Stratigraphic Analysis" - Julie Stein

"Tree-Ring Dating - Stephen Nash

"Ceramic Dating - Blinman (not restricted to seriation)

"Radiocarbon Dating" - Ervin Taylor, et.al.

"Obsidian Hydration" - Jeff Eighmy

"Luminescence Dating" - James Feathers

"Sociology of Science and the Development of Archaeological Dating Techniques" - Jen Croissant

"Discussion/Critique/Evaluation/???? - Stephen Nash and Dena Dincauze?"

VIII. Death Notices of Colleagues

DOI: <http://dx.doi.org/10.5334/bha.08110>

J. Charles Kelley, 13 December 1997, Anthropology Newsletter,
Fran DiPeso, 7 December 1997,
Linda Scbele, 18 April 1998, Arch-L Listserv, 21 April 1998
Richard B. Wheeler, 17 February 1997, Anthropology Newsletter,
Wesley Hurt, 3 November 1997, Anthropology Newsletter,
Moreau Sandford Maxwell, 30 January 1887, Anthropology Newsletter,
Clara Lee Fraps Tanner, 22 December 1997, Anthropology Newsletter,
Julian Dodge Hayden, 6 March 1998,